

CONNECTICUT ASSOCIATION FOR COMMUNITY TRANSPORTATION Employment Law Updates & Discussion

Date: Wednesday., May 30, 2018

8:30 am Registration, Program 9:00 am—11:30 am

Greater New Haven Transit District, 1014 Sherman Ave., Hamden, CT

For the fourth year, we are pleased to have Loraine Cortese-Costa, from the Law Offices of Loraine Cortese-Costa, provide training as to the various laws and union matters that govern employee relations in the transit industry. This year's training will address certain specific issues which transit agencies face on a regular basis:

- 9-9:30 Employment Handbooks-Creating and Curtailing Employee Legal Claims
- 9:30-10 Workplace Violence Including Bullying and Harassment-Preventative Training and Policies
- 10:00-10:15 Questions and Break
- 10:15-10:45 The FMLA and Connecticut's Paid Sick Leave Law-A Refresher
- 10:45-11:15 Whistleblower Protection in Transit
- 11:15-11:30 General Discussion and Questions

Loraine Cortese-Costa is the principal attorney with the Law Offices of Loraine Cortese-Costa. She represents numerous clients in the transit industry including many CACT members. Prior to starting her own firm in April 2015, she worked for a national labor and employment law firm in New York City and was a Director with Durant, Nichols, Houston, Hodgson & Cortese-Costa, P.C., a Bridgeport based labor and employment law firm, for over twenty-five years. She has represented management in hundreds of labor and employment matters in the state and federal courts, Departments of Labor, CHRO, NLRB, State Board of Labor Relations, collective bargaining and in arbitration. She counsels CEOs and Human Resources executives on compliance and policy development, advises on all types of personnel and labor union issues and actions, provides executive and supervisory training and negotiates union contracts. Named by her peers to the Best Lawyers in America© 2017 and 2018 for Labor and Employment Law-Management, she is admitted to the Connecticut and New York bars, formerly chaired the Labor and Employment section of the Greater Bridgeport Bar Association, was appointed to the Pro-Bono Panel of the federal Second Circuit Court of Appeals in 2014 and has served as an Attorney Trial Referee and Fact-Finder/Arbitrator for the Connecticut Superior Court since 1996. Loraine comes from a thoroughly transit family; her grandfather, father and three brothers all had careers with the MTA.
