What is CACT?

The Connecticut Association for Community Transportation (CACT) is your voice and advocate for public transportation in the state of Connecticut. CACT provides a statewide forum for the exchange of public transportation information; advocates for public transportation and public transportation customers at the local, state, and federal levels; provides training and technical assistance to members; serves as a vehicle for the collection and exchange of information of public transportation interest; and encourages the efficient and effective use of all available public transportation vehicles.

CACT membership represents a diverse group of transportation organizations across the state, including the Connecticut Department of Transportation, public transit operators, not-for-profit transportation providers and brokerages, regional planning agencies, rideshare agencies, social service agency transportation providers, vendors, private for-profit providers, individuals involved in transportation issues and users of community transportation services. Working together, we are building a strong voice for public transportation in Connecticut.

Won't you join us and ensure the mobility and quality of life of Connecticut's residents now and in the future?
