

Surface Transportation in Connecticut: Strengthening the Federal Investment in Your Ride!

PANEL DISCUSSION

Date: January 28

Time: 1:30 pm

Greater Hartford Transit District

1 Union Pl - Union Station - Hartford

- How is your ride on the streets of Connecticut's towns and cities affected by federal legislation—CLEAN-TEA, Jobs for Main Street Act, SAFETEA-LU extension, the climate change bill, and sustainable and livable communities legislation?
- How do the federal bills strengthen Connecticut's economy; connect people to jobs, marketplaces, and health care; provide mobility to all; reduce our carbon footprint; and, repair our streets and make them safe for all users?
- What actions can you take to strengthen the federal investment in your ride?

A distinguished panel will answer the above questions and more. The panelists-

David Kooris, Vice President at the Regional Plan Association (RPA), manages RPA's Connecticut and Hudson Valley programs. YaTing Liu, field organizer for Transportation for America and Federal Advocate at the Tri-State Transportation Campaign (TSTC), coordinates TSTC's work and national transportation reform efforts. Ryan Lynch, Senior Planner at the Tri-State Transportation Campaign, works to promote sustainable transportation options and community development in Connecticut and the metropolitan suburbs.

Who should attend? Anyone who is interested in public transportation, access to jobs, livable communities, economic development, the environment and smart growth. Invite your colleagues and elected officials to attend.
